Lane Transit District

LTD Eases Graduation Weekend Congestion

EUGENE, Ore. ---(June 10, 2024)--- Lane Transit District is here to help people get around during the University of Oregon’s graduation weekend. This year’s University Commencement Ceremony takes place Monday, June 17 at 9:00 a.m. at Autzen Stadium.

“Every year, we look forward to transporting grads and their loved ones to ceremonies and celebrations. This weekend is a crowded one in Eugene, so LTD is an obvious choice,” said Pat Walsh, LTD’s Chief Marketing Officer. “Whether you need to get to Autzen Stadium, Matthew Knight Arena or downtown Eugene, LTD can do it all. The best part? You don’t have to sweat the parking or traffic.”

Routes 13 and 79x go to Autzen Stadium, while EmX can drop riders off on campus. Eugene Station is LTD’s central hub, where most bus routes pass through, making it a great place to start any trip.

Details about how to get around via LTD are available here, or you can take a PeaceHealth Rides bike, by our partners at Cascadia Mobility.

Complete bus schedules are available online.

About Lane Transit District (LTD)

Lane Transit District (LTD) is a special district of the State of Oregon led by a seven-member volunteer board of directors appointed by Oregon’s governor. LTD’s budget is funded through a combination of fares, taxes paid by local employers and employees, and from state and federal sources. LTD lives its mission to connect our community by delivering more than 5 million annual passenger boardings from 30 fixed bus routes and two EmX Bus Rapid Transit lines. LTD’s paratransit service, RideSource, provides more than 250,000 trips annually for people with disabilities and Medicaid recipients. More information about LTD is at www.LTD.org.
