Lane Transit District

LTD Helps People Get Around During U.S. Olympic Trials

EUGENE, Ore. ---(June 14, 2024)--- Lane Transit District is on hand to help people get around during the U.S. Olympic Team Trials – Track & Field, taking place at the University of Oregon’s Hayward Field from Friday, June 21 – Sunday, June 30.

“The Trials bring thousands of visitors to the area and taking public transportation is the obvious choice,” said Pat Walsh, LTD’s Chief Marketing Officer. “Riding the bus means no parking or dealing with detours. It’s also a more sustainable way to get around.”

In addition to riding EmX to the Trials, LTD’s bus system can take people all over the area.

“Once you’ve experienced how easy it is to take the bus, we hope visitors use LTD to travel to some of our area’s unique sites,” added Walsh. “People can get to Saturday Market, Fern Ridge Reservoir, or tour the murals of Cottage Grove.”

Details about how to get around via LTD are available here, or you can take a PeaceHealth Rides bike, by our partners at Cascadia Mobility.

Complete bus schedules are available online. During the 20 km Race Walk on June 29, there will be significant impacts to traffic in downtown Springfield, including some LTD arrivals and departures from Springfield Station.

About Lane Transit District (LTD)

Lane Transit District (LTD) is a special district of the State of Oregon led by a seven-member volunteer board of directors appointed by Oregon’s governor. LTD’s budget is funded through a combination of fares, taxes paid by local employers and employees, and from state and federal sources. LTD lives its mission to connect our community by delivering more than 5 million annual passenger boardings from 30 fixed bus routes and two EmX Bus Rapid Transit lines. LTD’s paratransit service, RideSource, provides more than 250,000 trips annually for people with disabilities and Medicaid recipients. More information about LTD is at www.LTD.org.
